

Q:1

Ans. Motivation is the Drive that pushes an employee to work, while job satisfaction is how happy the employee feels with their job. Motivation affects performance, but job satisfaction affects attitude.

Q:2

Ans..

Perception means how a person understands something based on their views. It's important because people can see the same thing.